APRIL 22, 2018

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

FROM THE PASTOR

A quick reminder to everyone that this Monday evening, April 23, our parish is hosting a concert given by Lyra, the vocal ensemble from St. Petersburg, Russia. The quartet specializes in sacred music of the Russian Orthodox Church, as well as Russian folk music. The members were all educated at the St. Petersburg Conservatory of Music as either opera singers or choir conductors. It's sure to be a special treat. Please come if your schedule permits.

Saturday, April 28 is the feast day of one of the Church's more recent saints — St. Gianna Beretta Molla, who was canonized on May 16, 2004 in St. Peter's Square. Present for the canonization were St. Gianna's husband and children. It is the first known instance when a husband was present for his wife's canonization.

Gianna was born on the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, October 4, 1922, the tenth of thirteen children. Her parents were both Third Order Franciscans. One of her brothers, Giuseppe, is a priest. A sister, Virginia, was a Canossian sister and physician. Another brother, Enrico (religious name Alberto) was a Capuchin friar. His cause for canonization is open now, which accords him the title Servant of God. Gianna was born in Magenta, but spent a significant portion of her childhood in Bergamo. In 1949, Gianna graduated from medical school in Milan and began a pediatrics practice. Throughout her life, Gianna was an active and devout practitioner of her faith, and throughout her medical career she was steadfast in following Catholic moral teaching. She hoped to follow her brother to the Brazilian missions and provide medical care to the poor, but chronic ill health prevented her. Gianna married Pietro Molla, an engineer, in 1955. Together, they had four children. During the second month of her pregnancy with her fourth child in 1961, Gianna developed a benign tumor on the uterus. Doctors gave her the choice of an abortion and complete hysterectomy or the more risky procedure of attempting to remove the tumor alone. Not wishing to harm her child, Gianna opted for the latter. The child, Gianna Emanuela, was born via Caesarean section on Holy Saturday, April 21, 1962. Gianna, however, died a week later on April 28 of complications.

Most of us talk a good game when it comes to standing by our principles, our beliefs, and our faith. But when push comes to shove, we can be very quick to make expedient compromises. Not St. Gianna. She reminds us that we will all face death. It is inevitable and inescapable. And compromising ourselves in order to dance away from it for a little longer is just not the Christian way.
